

Educachess, an Integrative Project

Educachess, in addition to creating its own content, enriches and integrates materials from other projects which, while retaining their autonomy, become part of a shared initiative, open to everyone and for everyone

XECBALL

Gustavo Martínez Serrano

The Xecball comics are aimed primarily at middle–primary students and are intended to promote their international dissemination.

The book includes various motor-skills resources, such as motor games, motor stories, motor songs and body expression.

TOCADA MOVIDA

Alejandro Oliva

Tocada Movida by Educachess is a new revised edition based on a previous version, to which various didactic suggestions —both general and specific— have been added for working with stories that combine music and chess, as well as with songs.

PORTRAITS OF CHESS MASTERS

Nistal Mayorga

Books dedicated to the Women's and Men's World Chess Champions.

Based on their content and anecdotes, a series of activities will be designed to work on values education and emotional education, with special attention to gender equality and multiculturalism.
